Dear Mrs. Sample:

Wouldn't it be wonderful if every dog and cat lived a storybook life surrounded by love, affection, and attention? Sadly there are hundreds of animals that are yearning for a loving home. They are in desperate need of an owner... someone who cares... someone who is willing to meet their basic need for food, shelter, and love. That's why we need caring people like you to become Bideawee Buddies.

Pets give us affection and companionship unconditionally. They are our pals no matter what. They don't care if we are popular or successful—they just know that we are their friend... their family and they love us. The joy that they give us is priceless!

I wish that everyone shared the same passion for pets that we do. If they did there wouldn't be stories like the five (3 1/2 month old) kittens-- Kenny, Sunny, Tiffany, Nina and Layla that were abandoned in a parking lot.

These innocent kittens were found by a neighbor after their owner vacated his apartment. They were enclosed in a taped brown box and rescued by a caring stranger who brought them to Bideawee—so they could get a shot at a storybook life.

It is because I know you care that I ask if you will do something life changing today. Will you become part of our Bideawee Buddy program for a dog or cat? Will you join to help... as we strive to find loving homes for them so they never have to suffer again?

With your support as a Bideawee Buddy we were able to help Kenny, Sunny, Tiffany, Nina, Layla and many other pets like them get these life altering services:
